

JAFPE Seminar Fire Safety of Capsule Hotel

Capsule hotel is one of the type of hotels in Japan and it is increasing these days due to the increase of sightseers from abroad.

Japan association of fire protection engineer established a working group for the fire safety of capsule hotel and has been studied for three years to assure the safety of this special type of hotel. The seminar of this issue was held on 14th of April with the result of this study of the working group. Agenda of the seminar is as follows.

1. Opening remarks	Kiyoshi Fukui	President of JAFPE
2. History and actual situation of Capsule hotels	Hirofumi Hotta	Bosai consultants cooperation
3. Regal requirement and administrative guidance of Capsule hotels	Kyoichi Kobayashi	Tokyo university of Science
4. Combustion experiment of Capsule hotels	Jun Kitahori	Akeno Facility Resilience Inc.
5. Guideline for the design of Capsule hotels	Kiyoshi Fukui Yoshikazu Minegishi	President of JAFPE Takenaka corporation

This seminar was held online for two hours with 50 attendees. At the end of the seminar, we had some comments from some attendees. The working group will conclude the final report referring to these comments and put it up on our homepage.

Opening Remarks Kiyoshi Fukui

Jun Kitahori

Yoshikazu Minegishi